Dear Friends,

Why run when you can walk? Not everyone will understand – but running has never been more popular, it seems. Every year around this time of year Heslington village becomes somewhat cut off from the world for a day, when the roads are closed for the Plusnet Yorkshire Marathon. Albeit somewhat inconvenient for some of us, the church has always embraced this event. Why complain? It's an opportunity to show kindness and hospitality. Each year, church volunteers go out to offer free tea and biscuits to anyone who is interested – stewards, supporters and anyone lost on campus. The disposable tea cups which we hand out are printed with a quote from St Paul: "Let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us!" (Hebrews 12.1) You are most welcome to come and help us at 10am on Sunday 8th October.

This year, we are more involved than usual. A relay team of five members and one ex-minister of the church will run the 26 miles in aid of church funds. Please give them an extra cheer – they may need it! Better still, drop by the church or The Vicarage and leave a donation in encouragement. And why not enter the sweepstake – to guess their official finishing time? I can give you an exclusive tip-off: the world record stands at just over 2 hours 2 minutes 57 seconds, so...

In the marathon of life, all of us are encouraged by St Paul to 'throw off everything that hinders and entangles' and to 'fix our eyes on Jesus.' Whether you do so by leaving a donation, offering a cup of tea, or running yourself into a sweat for church funds, is entirely up to you...

Love and prayers,

Rev Johannes Nobel

World Community for Christian Meditation Group

We meet weekly on Fridays in the Church library. We begin at 10:30am with refreshments, then have a period of meditation followed by a short teaching on meditation as taught by John Main (a Benedictine monk). You do not need to have any experience of meditation. If you are interested in finding out more, contact Anne French on 426961, or email Annejrench@hotmail.co.uk

Yorkshire Countrywomen's Association

Our next meeting will be at 7.30pm on 11th October in Heslington Village Meeting Room. Our visiting speaker is Liz Buckles of 'Bourne Aroma' who will talk about Holistic Aromatherapy. The competition is a fan. New members welcome.

Post Cards & Stamps

Postage stamps can be valuable, especially the foreign ones. Please cut them off the envelope, leaving a border of 1/4". Also, all undamaged post cards have some value to collectors, whether old, new, coloured, sepia, or black and white, British or foreign. All cards can be sold. Never remove the stamps, as this makes the post cards worthless. If you have any stamps and post cards, they can be left at the Church, or at no. 17 Foxthorn Paddock. Thank you. Sue Garnett

Mothers' Union

We meet for Corporate Communion on Wednesday 4th October at 9.30am. This will be followed by Coffee and Bible Study. On Thursday 19th at 2.00pm Mrs. Anne Mott will tell us of 'Dobbie of Malta'. If this intrigues you, please accept the invitation to come along and be enlightened. We are also looking forward to being joined by other members of the Mothers' Union from around York. Sue Garnett

Sunflower competition

The most GIGANTIC sunflower was grown by Megan Goffee – again ! At 2.97m it was nearly half a meter higher than the second placed Chris Trevor. Many thanks to all who took part and please try again next year. Proceeds help to maintain the playground. Bill McClean

Cobweb Orchestra

Would you like to play in an orchestra? Then come and join in with the Cobweb Orchestra at York Steiner School in Fulford on Wednesdays (7.30pm-9.30pm, 6th Sept to 13th Dec). All instruments and abilities welcome and there's no weekly commitment. Whether you're a seasoned player, a relative beginner who has never played in an orchestra, or you've been too busy to practise for years, you are welcome to join us. Contact Patrick Burnett (telephone 0773326679, email patrickcburnett@gmail.com) or just turn up!
