Dear Friends,

I want to write in support of politicians! In spite of the occasional scandal in the headlines, all the local councillors and MPs I have known have been honest and idealistic, working hard for the common good. I have great respect for the local parish and city councillors giving their time to make their Wards, or York as a city, better places to live, work and play. I encourage you all to support them, to attend their meetings and respond to public consultations, as well as to hold them to account at elections (and of course to pray for them).

Nationally, the focus is on Brexit, but there are still the bread-and-butter issues of the NHS, Education, and Policing - especially with the rise of terrorism and sexual grooming of young people. As we as a nation have decided to turn our backs on the ideal of a united Europe, we have to decide what sort of Britain we want in the future: is it to be the "Singapore model" with a small state and efficient private sector, championed by David Cameron, George Osborne and Michael Gove, or the "Scandinavian model" with an enhanced welfare state, as espoused by Jeremy Corbin?

Politics matters. It is important we keep informed on these issues: local, national and international, think things through, and express our views as appropriate. Our choices, not just how we vote, but also how we spend our money and our time, show what we really value.

Post Cards & Stamps

Postage stamps can be valuable, especially the foreign ones. Please cut them off the envelope, leaving a border of 1/4". Also, all undamaged post cards have some value to collectors, whether old, new, coloured, sepia, or black and white, British or foreign. All cards can be sold. Never remove the stamps, as this makes the post cards worthless. If you have any stamps and post cards, they can be left at the Church, or at no. 17 Foxthorn Paddock. Thank you. Sue Garnett
